5. ITEMS FOR 1ST READING

ARB2015-0018 Debarment Review Board, Rules of Procedure, request to amend permanent rule. Evan Byron, member of the Debarment Review Board, presented an overview of changes made in sections 2 (time computation), 18 and 19 (motion for reconsideration), and 21 (allocation of cost of transcript in the event of an appeal to the County Court of Appeals). Ruchi Asher referenced section 19, and asked why the Board prohibits the Inspector General from filing a Motion for Reconsideration. Discussion ensued regarding the Board's rationale for this rule. The Board referred Resolution ARB2015-0018 for second reading at the December 17, 2015 meeting.

ARB2015-0019 Department of Development, Minimum Demolition and Maintenance Standards, request to amend permanent rule. Paul announced that at this time, the Department only wants to implement the change highlighted under section 32; the changes in section 24 and 31 are being held at this time. Maggie Keenan asked for additional explanation on the change proposed under section 32, and on the estimated cost of demolition. Bob Triozzi requested explanation of the calculation used to determine the $250 fine stated in section 32. He recommended that the department document this justification. The Board referred Resolution ARB2015-0019 for second reading at the December 17, 2015 meeting.

6. ITEM FOR 2nd READING & APPROVAL

ARB2015-0015 Fiscal Office, Capital Assets Policy, request for permanent adoption. Amy Himmelein, Controller, presented.

ARB2015-0016 Fiscal Office, Inventory Policy, request for permanent adoption. Amy Himmelein, Controller, presented.

Amy summarized and responded to comment submitted by Councilman Dale Miller. No substantive changes were made. IT equipment was added as an asset type category to the capitalization limits schedule, and other minor, technical corrections were made. Mike King motioned to approve Resolutions ARB2015-0015 and -0016; Ruchi Asher seconded. The Resolutions were unanimously approved.

ARB2015-0017 Office of Procurement & Diversity, various policies, request to extend temporary adoption of the rules through August 31, 2016. Mike King motioned to approve Resolutions ARB2015-0017; Ruchi Asher seconded. The Resolution was unanimously approved.
